Rector's letter

Dear Friends,

You may have seen recently on TV or social media that Lidl and Aldi launched their wooden toy collection a few weeks ago. Shoppers across the UK queued outside stores to get their hands on a bargain. As I entered Lidl to do the weekly groceries, I wondered why the middle aisle shelves were empty. One worker informed me that they were sold out of their wooden toys in less than an hour. Lidl and Aldi may have sold out of wooden toys but they always seem to have an oversupply of pressure cookers. This got me thinking about the subject of pressure in our lives. Perhaps you already have a pressure cooker and don't need another one or maybe your life already feels like a pressure cooker boiling over at the moment. Consciously or unconsciously, the average person today faces a myriad of different pressures. For some it may even feel like life is one big pressure cooker.

Pressure is something we all face, but we don't have to let it crush us. God has given us the Holy Spirit to help us when we feel pressure. He can guide us, give us wisdom and develop us.

Pressure is another word that we use for stress. Pressure squeezes out what's inside— like lumps of coal that thrive under pressure and become precious diamonds, or like olives that release their oil when they are crushed. This applies to our earthly lives as well; we need some pressure (not too much!) to keep us going in life, to help us reach our potential, and to stop us from becoming stale.

Let's consider Paul's words in Philippians 4:6: "Don't worry about anything, but pray about everything. With thankful hearts offer up your prayers and requests to God". Another translation says, "In every circumstance continue to make your wants known to God". God wants us to bring every pressure or stress in our lives to him in prayer. The more we release to him, the more inner peace we shall experience. The God of love, who holds the universe together, cares for us, and he alone has the power to guide us and bring order and calm into our lives.

All of us have to deal with pressure.

Sometimes it comes from the unavoidable strain of everyday life. So, the only safe thing to do is to surrender your problems to the One who gave his Life for us.

Surrendering isn't another thing to add to the to do list, it's a letting go and that brings relief and reassurance, knowing that our times are in his hands.

Paul said in 2 Corinthians 4:8: "We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed." When we talk about pressure, I think Paul must have experienced it more than most. Regardless of whether the pressure was minor or major, he persevered, never giving up. This is only possible through belief in a God who is the Sovereign over all things. Whatever pressures you are facing in life, take them to the feet of Jesus and feel the weight fall from your shoulders.

May his peace, that is beyond understanding, resonate through your body, mind and soul

In his name,

Sarah

Welcoming Mark Trimble to Killaney & Carryduff

We are delighted to have the opportunity to welcome Mark Trimble from the Church of Ireland Theological Institute to join us over the coming weeks.

Mark is currently a second-year, part-time student, training for ordination. He will be with us for ten Sundays, spending most of his time in Carryduff, but also joining us in Killaney on occasion. During his time with us, Mark will help to lead services and preach. Please keep Mark and his family in your thoughts and prayers as he joins us for these ten Sundays and continues his studies and preparation for the ordained ministry. Mark writes some words of introduction below:

Hi everyone,

My name is Mark. I am 39 years old. I am married to Emma and have a 3-year-old boy, Toby, and 4-month-old twins, Luca and Phoebe.

We joined Willowfield Parish Church last year, where my wife works as a kids' worker for the Willowfield Parish Community Association. Prior to that, we were in Drumbeg Parish, where I served as a Diocesan Lay Reader and part-time Evangelist.

Currently, I am a second-year ordinand at the Church of Ireland Theological Institute, and I work part-time as a Chartered Accountant in finance.

I have served in church in many ways over the years and have a real passion for seeing people come to faith. I am keen to see discipleship grow within the church so people can live out their faith in their daily lives.

In my spare time, I love spending time with my family, playing football, playing the drums, or going up the Mourne Mountains.

Looking forward to getting to know you all. Feel free to say hello and chat with me and the family.

God Bless,

Mark

Remembrance Sunday

Parish Hospitality at Carryduff

Remembrance Sunday is a very significant occasion in the life of our parish, as we welcome our uniformed organisations, their families and our parishioners to join us for this special service. It is one of the biggest services of the year, bringing together so many members of our church and wider community.

To help us offer a warm welcome and good hospitality in the hall after the service, we would be very grateful if parishioners could kindly donate wrapped biscuits, buns or traybakes, as they did last year.

To ensure we have enough refreshments prepared, please leave any donations in the church kitchen by Wednesday 4th November, clearly marked "Remembrance".

Thank you for your generosity and for helping us make this an enjoyable and welcoming occasion for everyone attending this important service.

Keith

Mothers' Union and Friends

Well , I wouldn't say we were the world's best flower arrangers but Joan certainly did her best to educate us! We had great fun putting together our autumn themed arrangements. A big thank you to Joan for all her hard work and patience.

Our meeting on Thursday 5th November is a change to our original programme. We are delighted that Joy Smith will be joining us to talk about "Granny's Postcards".This will be an interesting description of a collection of postcards discovered in her late grandmother's belongings. Everyone is most welcome to join us at 7.30pm in the Mitchell Room.

POP (Points of Prayer) – Becoming a People of Prayer

"Lord, teach us to pray." – Luke 11:1.

There are many things that make a church what it is. Our worship, our fellowship, our welcome, our care for one another and our desire to serve the community are all important. But at the heart of it all, there is something that should shape and strengthen everything we do - prayer.

One of my hopes for our church is that we will increasingly become known as a people of prayer. Not simply a church that includes prayers in its Sunday services, but a church family where prayer is woven into the fabric of our everyday lives.

Prayer is, quite simply, a conversation with God. It doesn't require clever words, special knowledge or a particular place. We don't have to get everything right or find the perfect words to say. God invites us to come to Him just as we are – with our joys and our worries, our questions and our thankfulness, our hopes and our fears.

When Jesus' disciples asked Him to teach them to pray, He gave them the words we now know as the Lord's Prayer. It begins with two wonderfully simple words: "Our Father." What a beautiful reminder that prayer begins with a relationship. We are invited to speak to a God who knows us, loves us and listens to us.

But prayer is about more than bringing our own needs before God. It opens our eyes and hearts to the needs of others. It reminds us that we belong to something much bigger than ourselves and encourages us to look beyond our own circumstances to the lives of those around us.

And that is where POP – Points of Prayer comes in!

We've recently introduced POP as a simple way to encourage us all to pray more regularly and more intentionally.

Each week, we share three prayer points, focusing on:

- Our Church – praying for our church family, our ministry, our mission and all that God is doing among us.
- Our Community – praying for the people around us, our neighbours, local schools, businesses, families and those facing difficulties.
- Our World – lifting our eyes beyond our parish to pray for places affected by conflict, poverty, injustice and suffering, and for God's peace and hope to be known.

These prayer points are shared each week on our service sheets, on the screens in church and on our website, so that everyone can join in.

The idea is deliberately simple. You don't need to set aside an hour or find lots of words. Perhaps you could spend a few minutes praying while you have your morning cup of tea, use the points during a quiet moment in the day, or pray through them as a family. Even a short, heartfelt prayer matters.

Imagine what might happen if, throughout our parish, people were regularly praying for the same things. Imagine the difference it could make to the way we see our community, care for our neighbours and respond to the needs of our world.

Prayer doesn't mean we will always get the answers we expect, or that life's difficulties will simply disappear. But prayer does change things. Sometimes it changes circumstances, and sometimes it changes us – giving us renewed hope, deeper compassion, greater courage and a stronger sense of God's presence.

My hope is that POP will be much more than three points printed on a page each week. I hope it will help us develop a habit of prayer, encourage those who are unsure where to begin and remind us that, wherever we are, we can turn to God.

So whether you've been praying for years, haven't prayed for a long time, or aren't quite sure how to start, why not give it a go?

Let's become a people who pray – for our church, for our community and for our world.

Prayer isn't just something we do as a church. It's part of what we are called to do.

The Suitcase Project

There is a shopping trolley in the Jeremy Taylor Chapler at Carryduff Church.

It is there for anyone who would like to donate items. The donations will be delivered to The Suitcase Project on our behalf.

Items currently needed:

- Cooking oil
- Tinned/chopped tomatoes
- Passata
- Sugar
- Basmati rice
- Tea and coffee
- Plain flour
- Pasta

Other practical items:

- Women's sanitary products
- Baby wipes

Thank you for helping us to welcome and care for those who are new to our community. Even a small donation can make a real difference, and together we can show something of the love of Christ in a very practical way.

Carryduff J Club Groups

A New Chapter for J Club!

I felt it was time to give J Club a bit of a facelift, and over the summer months, lots of planning, preparation and hard work went into energising the organisation and building on the wonderful ministry that has been running in our parishes for almost 25 years.

In September, we welcomed the new term with lots of new leaders and helpers, along with smart new leaders' uniforms. Our team has been absolutely amazing, and I am so grateful for the enthusiasm, commitment and energy they bring to J Club each week.

One of the biggest changes has been splitting the organisation into three age groups, allowing us to tailor our activities and teaching to the different ages of the children:

- Tinies: P1–P2
- Juniors: P3–P5
- J Club Plus: P6 and upwards

We currently have approximately 70 children registered since September, which is fantastic!

Each Friday evening, the children come together in the church building for a time of praise, worship and teaching, before splitting into their three groups for age-appropriate activities. The evening also includes a visit to the tuck shop, with the final 15 minutes dedicated to active games and activities.

It has been wonderful to see the enthusiasm of the children and the continued growth of J Club, as we seek to provide a fun, welcoming environment where children can build friendships, learn about their faith and grow together as part of our church family.

A Heartfelt Thank You

Throughout October, we have been so grateful to receive many very generous donations from parishioners, who wish to remain anonymous. These gifts are a tremendous encouragement and will help us to continue supporting and developing this important ministry with our children and young people.

Thank you very much to everyone who has supported J Club. Your generosity, encouragement and prayers are much appreciated.

Looking Ahead – Christmas Shopping Trip to Dublin

On Saturday 28th November, we will be holding our annual J Club fundraiser, the Christmas Shopping Trip to Dublin!

We are delighted that our 60-seater coach is now completely full, and we are looking forward to a wonderful day of festive fun, Christmas shopping, homemade refreshments and plenty of craic!

Thank you to everyone who has booked a seat and supported this fundraiser. We are looking forward to another brilliant day together as we continue to raise funds for the future of J Club.

Thank you for being part of the J Club journey and helping us make this new chapter such an exciting one!

CARE NI

CARE stands for Christian Action Research and Education.

We are a UK-wide Christian charity working within the political sphere. CARE Northern Ireland is simply the Northern Ireland branch of the charity. For more than 40 years, we have been working to bring a Christian voice into political life. Our vision is to see politics renewed and lives transformed. Whether we like it or not, politics affects everything we do in society. Our lives are directly impacted by decisions that are made in Stormont and Westminster. That is why it is so important to have Christians within this arena, speaking Biblical truth into the issues that matter most to us. At CARE, we have a great relationship with many politicians, from all political persuasions across all of the Parliaments and Assemblies of the UK. An MP or MLA will often reach out to us for help on certain issues, to make sure they are representing the Christian viewpoint in the debate. We furnish them with advice, research and briefing notes on that issue, and we'll even write speeches for them to deliver in the Chamber, thus ensuing the Christiaan voice is heard within the debate and represented in the subsequent piece of legislation or law.

Another key aspect of our work is to engage with the Church. We want to help teach, educate, train, equip and resource churches and Christians to have a Biblical framework and understanding of many of the big issues we are seeing in society. There are so many challenges that we are facing here in Northern Ireland, not least in relation to the cost-of-living crisis, gambling harms, online safety, assisted suicide, abortion, gender/transgender identity and navigating a new digital world of Artificial Intelligence amongst others. CARE seeks to help Christians formulate a Biblical language and framework for effectively, and graciously, communicating the truth of the Bible into these modern-day issues and figure out the Christian perspective in an ever-increasing secular world.

Letting your Light Shine

I was returning home from a short visit to local shops one late afternoon recently when I realised that it was getting dark. It was necessary to switch on the car headlights. That, in turn, sparked a particular train of thought in my mind.

Before I got home and parked the car, some quite crucial biblically inspired directives came into my head. Most empatically I recalled an unmistakable instruction from Jesus, recorded in Matthew's record of the gospel. The text states "…… Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven." (Matthew 5 v 16)

These words come at the end of a substantial, much loved and truly familiar passage of text popularly referred to as "The Beatitudes". This, in turn, is an extensive record of Jesus advising his disciples in very clear terms about "letting your light shine". He states, for example:

"Blessed are the merciful….."

"Blessed are the pure in heart….."

"Blessed are the peacemakers….."

Of course, all of this has unarguable implications for each of us in our alarmingly secular age. We, as a quiet community of Christian believers, ought to be a lot more active in addressing these directives. We only need a brief glance at the televised news to grasp the current pervasive secular culture, with all its insatiable greed and widespread violence.

Surely we, as a Christian community, need to stand up against this. In brief, the secular world very much needs to be reconciled to the values of true Christian faith. True and effective Christian ministry directs all of us to "bear the hallmark of reconciliation." This objective is at the very heart of our commitment to the faith. It is simply not enough to merely come together on a Sunday morning. We need to actively shine a light into the world around us - and in all of this the Lord invites us "to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God" (Micah 6 v 8).

We need to switch on the lights.

Raymond Fox

We are delighted to share that our former Rector, Rev Canon Raymond Fox, has recently published a new book featuring a collection of his poetry, alongside personal reflections on his life and ministry. This promises to be a lovely opportunity to enjoy Raymond's writing and insights while supporting a very worthwhile cause. All proceeds from the sale of the book will go towards the Black Santa Sit-Out at Belfast Cathedral, helping to support the many charities and good causes that benefit from this wonderful annual appeal.

Copies are available for £10 each.
If you would like to purchase a copy, please get in touch with Sarah.

Thank you, Denis

After many, many years of faithful and dedicated service to our Parish Shoebox Appeal, Denis has decided that the time has come to hand over the reins to Dave Johnston.

Over the years, Denis has given so generously of his time and energy, helping to ensure the continued success of this very worthwhile appeal. His hard work, commitment and quiet dedication have been greatly appreciated, and we are extremely grateful for everything he has done.

As a small token of our appreciation, Denis was presented with a card and gift on behalf of the parish, recognising his many years of loyal service.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to Denis for all his wonderful work and wish him every happiness as he steps back from this role.

We also warmly welcome Dave Johnston as he takes on the responsibility of coordinating the Shoebox Appeal and wish him every success in the years ahead.

The Big Fry Up & Stalls

What a fantastic success! Our Big Fry Up & Stalls brought the Carryduff community together for a wonderful morning of delicious food, friendly conversation and generous support. We are incredibly grateful to everyone who helped make the event such a memorable and successful fundraiser.

On behalf of the project team, we would like to extend a huge thank you to everyone who played a part.

It was fantastic to see our church building filled with people enjoying breakfast, browsing the stalls and coming together as a community. The warmth, enthusiasm and generosity shown throughout the morning made the event truly special.

A special thank you to everyone who volunteered their time, helped with the cooking and serving, organised the stalls, baked delicious treats for our Cakes & Bakes stall, kindly donated items, supplied goods or supported the event in any way. Your hard work and commitment were very much appreciated.

We were also delighted to welcome four community representatives, including the Mayor of Lisburn and Castlereagh, who took the time to come along and support us.

Our sincere thanks go to Carryduff Presbyterian Church and Killaney Church of Ireland for kindly allowing us to borrow tables for the event. Your support was greatly appreciated.

Finally, to everyone who attended, enjoyed breakfast, supported the stalls or helped spread the word — thank you!

It takes a tremendous team effort to organise an event like this, and we are so grateful to everyone who contributed. Not only was it a successful fundraiser, but it was also a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the strength and spirit of our local community.

The Talents Scheme

A huge thank you to everyone who took part in The Talents Scheme throughout the month of October!

It has been wonderful to see so many people getting creative and coming up with such a fantastic variety of fundraising ideas. From baking and selling quiz sheets to offering haircsuts, washing dogs, hosting coffee mornings and so much more. The imagination, generosity and enthusiasm shown by everyone has been amazing!

We have been truly overwhelmed by the response from across the parish. It has been fantastic to see so many people getting involved, using their talents and finding fun and inventive ways to raise money for our church roof.

Thank you to everyone who took part, supported the scheme and helped make it such a successful fundraiser. Every contribution, big or small, has made a real difference, and we are so grateful for your support.

It has been a wonderful example of what we can achieve together as a church family and community.

Thank you all for sharing your talents and helping make this such a success!

The Project Team

Logos Hope Visit

A few of us went to see the Logos Hope. As we rounded the corner to enter Clarendon dock, there she was, an impressive ship towering above the quay. It is 132 metres long and has 9 decks. The crew, including the captain, is made up of 300 unpaid, Christian volunteers.Each has to raise their own financial support from family, friends and churches. They come from 60 different nations and serve in their professional roles on the ship for 1-2 years.

The Logos Hope is a faith-based vessel concerned with global Christian outreach and evangelism. In addition to hosting events onboard, teams visit churches and offer practical help to the local community, sharing God's love by doing as well as speaking.

One big attraction is the bookshop which houses 5,000 books - bibles, books on the Christian faith, reference books, books on a variety of subjects, and lots of children's books. The temptation to buy is hard to resist, and, despite an earlier decision to come away empty-handed, two of us arrived home with a few titles!

The visit was a worthwhile, enjoyable experience. May God continue to bless those who serve Him on this amazing ship.

Funeral

19 October Samuel Warnock

Service of Thanksgiving at St Ignatius' Church, Carryduff

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord: they are blessed indeed for they rest from their labours- Revelation 14:13

Remembering

Samuel (Sam) Warnock was born on 23rd October 1936 in East Belfast.

When he was old enough, Sam joined the army and applied himself enthusiastically to being a soldier. He became a member of the army band and played the clarinet. His horizons widened when, in this role, Sam travelled to Germany, Cyprus and Hong Kong.

At a young age Sam met Joanna, love blossomed and the pair were married at St Mary's Church on the Crumlin Rd on 2nd April 1959. The newlyweds began their married life in Halcoln Street; there their family grew with the arrival of the late Brian in 1963, followed by Mark, Marie and Joanne.

In 1977 the family moved from East Belfast to Carryduff where they set up home in Killynure and later Winchester Drive. Sam was heavily involved with his church family here in St Ignatius'. He was a faithful attender at our Wednesday morning Holy Communion service and took on the role of church warden. Sam was held in high regard by all who knew him, as a caring, thoughtful man.

We continue to remember Sam's family in our prayers, his son Mark and partner Dot, his daughter Marie and partner Billy, and his daughter Joanne, and the rest of the family circle who knew and loved him.
